-Nanto Senses's English was very good

4. Was the study group useful? If not, why do you think so?

5. Were problem sets difficult, easy or standard? Was the amount appropriate?

The amount of problem sets was so much that I struggled to keep up. I studied the most for this course (full weekends) yet did the worst in any of my exams

6. What do you think about reading assignment? Was it difficult or easy?

7. Please write constructive comments that can be used to improve this class for the next year.

I enjoyed this course however I found the work load almost impossible with all my other subjects. Sometimes I found myself spending all week on homework and hours studying and neglecting my other courses because there simply wasn't time to do ~~all~~ everything. I would recommend one homework a week maximum (sometimes we had two) and less problem sets so we can fully understand each one instead of constantly rushing to keep up.
